- (25) 1984 May 7 Motion for Continuance filed. DENIED 5/9/84
- (26) 1984 May 24 Order of Court filed...ORDERED as follows: 1. Errol Weiss Schlachach is found to be in contempt of this court for failure to comply with the court's order to him dated November 3, 1983 that he must give a full accounting to the other members of the partnership of the profits derived from the sale of the musical scores previously used for the record "The Spirit of Christmas Brassed." Said defendant may purge himself of this contempt by giving this full accounting under oath to the other six members of the partnership and paying them the amount due from him thereunder under the terms of the partnership agreement. In the meantime, until this is done, each Maryland sheriff is directed to take physical custody of Errol Weiss Schlachach wherever he can be found in this state, and cause him to appear before this court concerning this contempt. 2. Plaintiff's requested contempt order against the other five defendants who perform collectively as the Annapolis Brass Quintet is denied. 3. All parties to this action are enjoined from using the musical scores previously used for the record "The Spirit of Christmas Brassed" without full notice thereof to all partners and prompt accounting for receipts therefrom as provided in their partnership agreement. The court has been advised that the hereinbefore referred to "scores" were handwritten scores and subsequently printed scores were published which may or may not have substantially the same content. At this time no decision is made concerning the status, ownership or use of the printed scores. 4. Plaintiff's request to refer this matter to a court auditor is denied because he has an adequate remedy to seek damages at law from the defendants whenever a timely declaration is filed. 5. Open court costs shall be paid by Erroll Weiss Schlachach. (copy delivered to Mr. Wright - 5/24/84; copies mailed to Messrs. Merrill and Variola - 5/28/84)
